For total in-house coaching solutions

ONE OF YOUR OWN MADE IT BIG!

Ever wonder how far your employees can go?

- Anouschka Gentner began her career at a Canadian Tire store on the retail floor in the Electrical Department
- For 12 years she was promoted until she reached the position of H.R. Manager, getting to know the organization from the inside out.
- She now has her own company that offers in-house coaching solutions specifically tailored to each Canadian Tire store's needs!

How much would it be worth to you if your employees could...?

Provide superior customer service

Handle stressful situations with tact and discernment

Interact with peers, management, and vendors better

Enjoy their jobs so much that they wouldn't leave

And do it all without ever leaving the store?

How you and your staff will benefit:

- Customized program according to each store's specific needs
- Discounts available if coaching more than two employees per store
- Post-coaching program follow-up provided
- Measureable improvements guaranteed
